Legal Updates 2020

Description: As we continue into 2020 there have been several changes in laws which will have a major impact on law enforcement, affecting every officer and deputy, from the rookie patrol officer to the most seasoned investigators and supervisors. This past year in particular has raised a number of new challenges for law enforcement in California from not being able to share information with other agencies to changes in how to legally carry a firearm in your car, as well as to how and when you can interrogate minors age of 15 and younger. All the new changes as well as some new case law on search and seizure will be discussed.

Instructor: Tia Quick has been a DDA for 26 years and is currently assigned to the Law Enforcement Liaison position at SDPD. Tia is also the recent winner of the prestigious 2016 CNOA State Prosecutor of the Year. She was recently transferred from the Major Narcotics Unit where she worked specifically on Informant issues, search warrants, and complex narcotics cases. Prior to that, Tia worked eight years as the law enforcement liaison at SDPD and has also served in the JUDGE unit, GANG unit and the Superior Court unit during her time as a DDA. For the past thirteen years, the focus of her job has been the reviewing of search warrants, updating officers on the law regarding search and seizure as well as helping maintain a positive relationship between police agencies and the DA's Office. Tia is a lead instructor for CNOA on Legal Updates/Search and Seizure and teaches throughout the state for local, state and federal law enforcement.
